Dear Sirs,

I am a retired part time resident of Montana where I reside In the Swan Valley. I support strong wilderness protections for the Gallatin Range as well as the Crazy Mtns and the Pryor Range.

With growing human populations in the north Yellowstone area protections afforded by the Gallatin Forest Partnership will help in Grizzly Bear Recovery and protect quiet trails for wilderness recreationists. The Crazy Mtns and the Pryor Mtns stand as prominent island ranges over the Montana landscape and must receive protections for wildlife protection and the scenic resource they offer. Indeed the Deep canyons cuts alongside the Pryors will offer great wilderness hiking opportunities for future generations. Please set aside as much of these landscapes as is possible to preserve their quietude and wilderness character.

Thank you for your appreciation of these views.
