I wish i had an itemized check list to put my thoughts upon... Yes, there's a medley of topics but being such a civilian, and retired at that it's a job to separate it out. Hello, i'm sure it's nightmareish.

I love the Pryors. I grew up in southern California and there were so many places like the Pryors but Not the Pryors! Nothing compares to the unique geologic amplifications and the cultural twists.

I especially LIKE the Culture of Birding...and from there we find snakes 'n horny toads to marvel at.

I want the roads that are there now to remain as open, with strict adherence to the standards, rules in place now. NO Off Roding of any kind. No Pollution of any kind. No drilling , No contamination of any kind. No use of Water to drill,

I would like to see some kind of non Indian involvement brought to the front, where local folks can see how the decisions for Sacred Land are acquired and disbursed.

I was just up Bear Cyn and i cannot get enough of this Canyon ~ and searching for Mtn Plovers and of course everything out around this phenomenal Mtn.
