Alternative D = yes. Everything else = NO!

We're destroying the ability of the planet to support life. We have to STOP and REVERSE this trajectory now. Before it's too late. That means DON'T plunder, pillage, rape, and destroy what little remains of somewhat undisturbed ecosystems, such as the Custer Gallatin National Forest.

Improve D by adding the entire 230,000 wild, roadless acres of the Gallatin Range as Recommend Wilderness. Prohibit all motorized and mechanized uses and all activities that are not consistent with wilderness protection. That means NO large herds of stock or people in any areas, and addressing feces -- human and pack animal -- in the lakes and streams on Beartooth Plateau.
